

Business License Information
Auctions/Auctioneer

$250.00, to be paid by the auctioneer

- A. Applications for auctioneer licenses shall state thereon the place of business intended to be occupied, if any, or the place of such auction; and shall give the names of any employees who are to be authorized to conduct auctions under the authority of the license.
- B. No license shall be issued by the city council to anyone but a person of good character and reputation, and the city manager or his designee shall investigate the character of each applicant before the license shall be issued. A nonrefundable investigation and fingerprinting fee of $145.00 shall accompany the application. Each applicant for an auction/auctioneer license shall present himself to the police department for fingerprinting and furnish the police or business license agency any other information necessary to conduct an investigation of such applicant's character and reputation. Fingerprint data will be used to conduct state and national criminal records checks. Upon receipt of the fingerprint data, the city police agency is authorized to transmit the fingerprint data to the Nevada department of public safety to conduct state criminal records checks. The Nevada department of public safety is authorized to exchange this fingerprint data with the federal bureau of investigation to conduct national criminal records checks. The results of the state and national criminal checks will be disseminated to the city police agency. Upon completion of the investigation, the police agency shall prepare and submit to the city council a report containing findings and a recommendation of approval or disapproval of the applicant. This provision is enacted pursuant to Nevada Revised Statutes 239B.0101(a) and public law 92-544.
- C. The employer shall be liable for any violation of the city ordinances committed by his employees in conducting an auction.
- D. Nothing in this section shall be held to apply to any public auction or sale made or conducted by a public officer by virtue of any judicial order or process, or by virtue of any power of authority contained in a mortgage or trust deed.
